DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-17, drawn to an apparatus of a vacuum manifold, classified in class 422, subclass 99.
 - II. Claims 18-29, drawn to an apparatus of a support holder, classified in class 422, subclass 104.
 - III. Claims 30-37, drawn to an apparatus of a liquid blotter, classified in class 422, subclasses 99 or 100.
 - IV. Claims 38-43, drawn to the method of delivering liquid from a spotting member, classified in class 422, subclasses 174 or 180.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as a picture frame or surgical device to hold body member(s) in a fixed position. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
3. Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as ink-jet printing, spraying, or washing. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
4. Inventions IV and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process can be practiced by hand or another materially different apparatus, as the process claims do not recite nor require the particulars of the apparatus claims, such as a vacuum manifold with a plate, or structure for coupling the plate to communicate with a source of vacuum. The apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, such as storing and draining chemicals.

5. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as a picture frame or surgical device to hold body member(s) in a fixed position. Invention III has separate utility such as ink-jet printing, spraying, or washing. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

6. Inventions IV and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand or by another materially different apparatus, as the process claims do not recite nor require the particulars of the apparatus claims, such as bars. The apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, such as containing picture within a frame or fixing the position of a body member within a surgical device.

Art Unit: 1743

7. Inventions IV and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand. The apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, such as ink-jet printing, spraying, or washing.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. A telephone call was made to Robert Lewis on 6/18/2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
